SUMMARY IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR SUMMONS

July 14, 2023

On September 14, 2015, Your Honor sentenced Mr. George to 56 months imprisonment, to run concurrent to State of Nevada Case No.: CR13-1784, after Mr. George plead guilty to Wire Fraud. Mr. George has criminal history dating back to 1983 which includes convictions for Credit Card Abuse; Theft (misdemeanor); and Attempted Fraudulent Use of Alien Registration Cards; Mortgage Fraud. Mr. George was also arrested in 1995 for Prostitution in which he received a deferred probationary sentence. The case was later dismissed. Supervised release was imposed for a term of three years and commenced on November 12, 2021.

Mr. George's initial start to supervision was largely satisfactory concerning conduct. Mr. George secured employment and began making payments towards restitution. In early 2023, Mr. George became more difficult to locate at his residence; however, would report to the U.S. Probation Office when prompted. Mr. George was contacted at his home on April 5, 2023, and noted he planned to file for early termination of supervised release.

On June 20, 2023, Reno Police Department ("RPD") Human Exploitation and Trafficking Unit ("HEAT") detectives posted an online advertisement on a known prostitution website, Private Delights. HEAT detectives posted the advertisement on the site because HEAT had previously recovered numerous sex trafficking victims from the same website. According to the police report, the advertisement stated the following: "JJsweetts Hii my name is JJ ?? I am fun, petite, discreet, and exxxtra sweet! I guaranteed u will be more than satisfied..INCALL ONLY text me to meet 775-406-7093"

That same day, "JJ" received a message from 775-384-4027, which is the primary phone number of record provided to U.S. Probation by Mr. George, that stated, "Are you available." "JJ" wrote back that she would be available tomorrow or the next day. The same number re-engaged on June 21, 2023, at approximately 1:50 pm, asking again if "JJ" was available. An agreement was made for 30 minutes of a "GFE" (referring to a girlfriend experience which includes sex coupled with kissing and cuddling) in exchange for $200. "JJ" provided an address of 3470 Socrates Drive, Reno, Nevada, and Mr. George allegedly indicated he would pick her up to take her to a hotel to conduct the date.

At approximately 9:48 pm, a Honda CRV, with Nevada plates bearing 424W34 (matching the primary make/model/plate number of the vehicle of record provided to U.S. Probation by Mr. George), pulled up to the front of the house. "JJ" asked Mr. George, via text, it was him out front to which he responded, "Yes." HEAT detectives active their red and blue overhead lights on their vehicle and placed Mr. George under arrest. A black smartphone was found on the front driver's seat. A confirmation call was placed, and Mr. George's phone displayed the call notification. During a search incident to arrest, officers located $225 in U.S. currency in a red wallet located in Mr. George's front left pants pocket.

Mr. George was read his Miranda rights and said he understood. Mr. George elected to speak with a HEAT detective and admitted to meeting a female on Private Delights. Mr. George admitted he had arranged to pay her for sex. George provided consent to search his phone and the HEAT detective located the conversation with "JJ." George was arrested and later released.

Following the arrest, on June 26, 2023, United States Probation Officer ("USPO") Matthew McKeon contacted Mr. George and instructed him that USPO McKeon would come by Mr. George's residence to discuss the arrest. On June 27, 2023, Mr. George reported to the U.S. Probation Office in Reno even though he had been instructed to remain at his home. Despite the arrest, Mr. George wanted to discuss the reasons why he could not apply for early termination. USPO McKeon explained that Mr. George had now violated his conditions of supervision and that revocation proceedings would commence. The U.S. Probation Office respectfully requests that a summons be issued, and that Mr. George appear before the Court to address his supervised release violations. If the Court would prefer a different course of action, please indicate so above.

Respectfully submitted,
